With Your Will and Estate Plan Coming in November

Do you realize you can get free confidential estate planning advice? Over the past ten years, Mr. Bob Zeilenga, an estate specialist from the Barnabas Foundation, has helped hundreds of families in Whatcom County with their estate plans.

Mr. Bob Zeilenga will be in our area November 7-11 to help answer questions about wills and estate plans. After this professional and confidential meeting, you will have more knowledge of estate planning. Shortly after the initial meeting, you will receive a personal document that summarizes your family's plan and the tentative decisions you have made. Once you have reviewed it, you can take it to your attorney to assist in the preparation of the necessary legal documents. This one-hour consultation is a free service to you and very beneficial. Meeting with Mr. Zeilenga makes the estate process much easier, saves you time with your attorney, and your final costs will be much less. After the meeting, you will receive an additional $50 certificate redeemable at one of the participating attorneys. If you have not yet met with Mr. Zeilenga, now is the time to take advantage of this worthwhile service.

During this week, Mr. Bob Zeilenga will be able to meet with 15-20 families or individuals. If you are interested in arranging a meeting, please call Mr. Don Van Maanen at 318-9525.
